

I am absolutely opposed to any further deregulation of ownership by corporations such as Disney or Verizon (et al) in a given market. There's little enough competition as it is! The proposed legislation on Broadcast Ownership will only serve to undermine the original intention of a Free Press as put forth under the First Amendment. Do NOT let a few greedy corporations have total control of our Public Airwaves! To let that happen would be to spell the end of Democracy in the U.S.